New Partner at KPMG

Attila Ságoti joined KPMG`s Energy & Utilities Advisory Practice

KPMG in Hungary announces that Attila Ságoti (39) has joined its Energy & Utilities advisory practice in Budapest as a Partner, effective 1 January 2010. Attila joined a team which plays a leading role in the Central and Eastern European (CEE) region and is also designated as KPMG`s Global Power & Utilities Knowledge and Resource Center. Attila will advise both local and regional clients and contribute to the further growth of the business through wider market coverage.

Attila Ságoti brings more than ten years of industry experience to his new position. He previously worked as a Principal with The Boston Consulting Group (BCG) where he advised all of the major energy companies in Hungary and also gained strong international experience in the energy sector.

The appointment of Attila Ságoti as a Partner will enable Peter Kiss, KPMG`s Global Head of Power & Utilities to further concentrate his efforts on growing and sustaining business relationships with major domestic, regional and international clients by advising them on major projects related to strategy, mergers & acquisitions, corporate finance, operational restructuring, risk management and regulatory matters.
