Péter Kiss, Head of Sector, Energy, KPMG in CEE has recently been appointed as Global Power & Utilities Sector Leader

Péter Kiss (43) Partner with KPMG in Hungary has been appointed as Global Power & Utilities Sector Leader. In his new role Peter Kiss will head up Global P&U initiatives within the umbrella of Global ENR (Energy and Natural Resources) and become a member of the Global ENR Core team. KPMG's Global Power & Utilities network consists of 160 partners and hundreds of professional staff globally and as such it is one of KPMG's fastest growing industry sector.

Peter Kiss joined KPMG from Arthur Andersen as a Partner in 2002 to build up the Hungarian energy and utilities business advisory practice then continued this activity on a regional level becoming Head of Sector, Energy, KPMG in Central and Eastern Europe. As a result of this regional initiative Peter is now developing and leading a regional energy advisory practice of almost fifty industry-focused professionals operating as one integrated team across the CEE region. KPMG provides its clients complex audit, tax and advisory services to all of the links in the value chain.

Following Péter's appointment as Global P&U Sector Leader the Budapest-based Power & Utilities Centre of Excellence has now been developing a strategic role being mandated to create and operate the Global Power & Utilities Knowledge and Resource Centre to leverage information and knowledge of the global energy practices and win new business.
